

community photos

2018 Kenora District Festival of the Arts wraps with Hi-Lites Concert

After a month of performances in front of adjudicators a handful of the top performers took to the stage at Knox United Church, Saturday, April 28 to showcase their music, theatre, dance and artistic talents.

The Hi-Lites Concert capped off the 74th annual Kenora District Festival of the Arts.

The major trophies presented for 2018 went to:

Sarah Favreau took home the Lucia Melnick Trophy (Jonah Grienke was the runner-up);

Lydia Dunk was awarded the Ruth Girard Trophy;

Janessa Lyle earned the Dramatic Arts Rose Bowl.

The Daily Miner trophy winners were:

G.A. Toole Cup - St. Thomas Aquinas High School Winds and Percussion;

Junior G.A. Toole Cup - STAHS Intermediate Band;

Vocal Theatre Solo Award -

Amelie Graham;

Vocal Theatre Ensemble Award - St. Louis School, Grade 5 and 6; Kenora Board of Trade Shield - Good Fortune, BBSS; XI Epsilon Nu Beta Sigma Phi Sorority Trophy - Molly Hendy.

Minor Trophies for Visual Arts and Dance:

Adjudicator's Choice for Dance - A Good Life, DWK Ensemble;

Student Choreography Awards: Kennady Cook;

Visual Arts Adjudicator's Choice, Adult - Joel McGrath;

Visual Arts Adjudicator's Choice, Youth - Adam Norlen Graham;

Visual Arts People's Choice, Adult - Eric Matheson;

Visual Arts, People's Choice, Youth - Adam Norle-Graham and Clarenza Ceria;

Visual Arts Scholarships: Ruby Klippenstein, Jordyn Gravelle-Fortes, Nako Komnani.

Andrea Busch showed off her flexibility during her dance performance at the Hi-Lites Concert.

Madonna, Cher and Jaycie - the latter star performed L'Exces des petits moms d'amitie.

PHOTOS BY SHERI LAMB/FOR THE ENTERPRISE

Sue McIntosh plays piano as the Beaver Brae Secondary School intermediate choir has a 'Perfect' performance at the Hi-Lites Concert.

Sarah Favreau received the Lucia Melnick trophy for her work and performed at the Hi-Lites Concert, Saturday, April 28 at Knox United Church.

Amelia Graham informed the audience about her '... New Philosophy' in Life.